ABOUT JOPEN

Craft beer brewery Jopen was born from the shared dream of restoring the Haarlem brewing tradition. The knowledge of the past and the possibilities of the present result in heavenly craft beers.

In preparation for the 750th anniversary of Haarlem city comes the idea to bring back traditional Haarlem beer.

Recipes from 1407 and 1501 are found in the city archive and the beer is reproduced. And... the brews are a pleasure to drink! With the Hoppenbier, the festive year starts on November 11, 1994. The start of Jopen!

The name Jopen comes from the fourteenth century, breweries run at full speed and the barley beer is transported in "Jopen" (barrels of 112 liters) over the Spaarne.

JOPENKERK

You can watch the brewing process from the Grand Café and restaurant of the Jopenkerk Haarlem. Because the brewery is woven into the church, guided tours cannot be given here. The space behind the brewing kettles is simply too small for this.

BEER & FOODPAIRING

ABOUT JOPENKERK

It took quite a few years, but finally in 2005 an opportunity arose in the 'Raaks' area of Haarlem city center.

The old Jacobskerk (church) had not been in use since the 1970's and it was up for sale. Despite a leaking roof, smashed windows and a rotten foundation, this would eventually become the home of Jopen Beer.

After some necessary renovation work had been completed the Jacobskerk was renamed into Jopenkerk Haarlem.

With its impressive interior with stained glass windows, high ceiling and a raised platform where the brewhouse is situated, this brewery church in Haarlem is now a must visit for beer-lovers.

The kitchen also serves excellent food for lunch, bites, and dinner, and we love to explain more about our beer and food pairings, for example during the High Beer experience!

HIGH BEER EXPERIENCE

Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon.

Like a High Tea, but with beer!

This experience contains 3 tasters of Jopen beer (15 cl) with 6 matching homemade bites. The beer-food combinations are put together by the Jopen beersommelier team.

Jopen beer will intensify the flavours of the small dishes which creates a unique experience. During the High Beer an explanation of the served combinations is provided. The tasting contains both fish and meat. Of course, we can keep in mind any dietary wishes if shared beforehand.
